Dear Dr Alshahrani

Thank you for your email of 21st December requesting permission to adapt and reproduce a table taken from the chapter, Endometrial hyperplasia and neoplasia: definition, diagnosis, and management principles by Dr G. Mutter and Dr A. Ferenczy that appears in GLOWM, for use in your dissertation.

I have pleasure granting you permission to reproduce the table on the condition that you acknowledge GLOWM as the source of the table in the form of a full reference and contact Dr George Mutter for permission also.

Dr George Mutter can be contacted via email: gmutter@partners.org

Thank you for your interest in GLOWM and for using it as a resource.

Yours sincerely

Julia Tissington

Dear Sir/Madam

I am a PhD candidate and I need to get your permission to adapt the table of "Accuracy of endometrial histologic methods for diagnosing neoplasia" in the article of [Mutter, G. L., and A. Ferenczy. "Endometrial hyperplasia and neoplasia: definition, diagnosis, and management principles." Glob Libr Womens Med (2008)]. This table will be used to illustrate some points in my dissertation.

Thank you
Saad
