

Republication Requests

Authors reusing their own material

Authors have permission to do the following after their article has been published in Blood, either in print or online as a First Edition Paper.

- Reprint the article in print collections of the author's own writing.
- Present the work orally in its entirety.
- Use the article in theses and/or dissertation.
- Reproduce the article for use in courses the author is teaching. If the author is employed by an academic institution, that institution may also reproduce the article for course teaching.
- Distribute photocopies of the article to colleagues, but only for noncommercial purposes.
- Reuse figures and tables created by the author in future works.
- Post a copy of the article on the author's personal website, departmental website, and/or the university intranet. A hyperlink to the article on the Blood website must be included.

The author must include the following citation when citing material that appeared in the print edition of Blood:

"This research was originally published in Blood. Author(s). Title. Blood. Year;Vol:pp-pp. © the American Society of Hematology."

Material from a First Edition Paper can only be reused if the article has not yet been published in its final form in the print version of Blood. When using material from a First Edition Paper, it should be cited as follows (shown here with sample date and DOI):

"This research was originally published in Blood Online. Author(s). Title. Blood. Prepublished June 15, 2002; DOI 10.1182/blood-2001-12-1234."

Authors reusing their own material in the above ways do not need to contact Blood for permission. For all other uses, the author must request permission from ASH by visiting the Copyright Clearance Center.
